Stylist

We are seeking a Stylist to join our Fitzroy team. This is a unique role, leading and organising the design of multiple projects for both virtual and real life projects.

Working closely with the Directors and studio team, the successful applicant will provide creative solutions that will ultimately impress and engage our client groups.

The position offers:

- a highly collaborative studio environment
- the opportunity to work closely with directors and other design contributors
- the freedom to create considered design solutions including furniture, artwork and prop specification (especially in virtual projects)
- scope to cultivate industry networks
- time to research trends and new thoughts in our broader industry - architecture, interior design, styling, art, product
- encouragement to be meticulous with details
- freedom to explore new territory in virtual scenarios and push the envelope
- the chance to work with client groups made up of Directors from the worlds best architectural and interior studios

We are looking for a talented stylist with:

- the ability to read and interpret architectural and interior design drawing sets including FF&E schedules and material specifications.
- at least six years of experience
- the capacity to transform concepts from ideas into implementation
- excellent communication and organisational skills
- motivation to produce great work
- the ability to create concept presentations encompassing mood boards, reference and furniture/props that respond to the client brief
- an understanding of various demographics, aesthetics and styles
- the ability to inspire a creative team to deliver outstanding work
- an inquisitive spirit
- experience styling spaces for interiors photographers a bonus
- a valid Drivers license (and a car is a bonus)

About us

Gabriel Saunders has established itself as Australia's premium quality architectural visualisation and interior styling studio. Our tailored approach, unique methodology and cross disciplinary team create a unique offering for our clients. This methodology in turn provides our studio the creative freedom to challenge our clients expectations and produce stunning and successful outcomes for their projects.

We work with the world's leading architects, interior designers, branding agencies, photographers and developers - the designs are beautiful and the expectations are high.

The successful candidate will develop a strong design aesthetic working on an enviable pipeline of projects across a variety of industries. We believe in dynamic careers and nurturing people's strengths and interests through work life balance, varied opportunities and experiences.
